Financial Adviser

Various Locations: Suffolk/ East Anglia, Warwickshire/ Midlands, Avon & Somerset to £50K basic with realistic OTE of £100K, plus excellent benefits.

A multi-award winning, top 10 UK insurance company seeks a high calibre Financial Adviser to assist with its ongoing transformation plans.

This prestigious company boasts a turnover in excess of £1 billion and has an extremely loyal client base of circa 900,000 customers.

You will provide first-class financial advice covering protection, pensions, investments & IHT solutions. Working with the Agency network, agents and staff within their offices will be acting as introducers from their existing customer base. With access to a range of products & services, fact find preparation support, electronic point of sale technology and paraplanning support, you will have all the tools to help you provide quality advice and write business.

You must be a very strong relationship manager who can quickly establish credibility and earn the trust and confidence of introducers. Equally, you must be highly motivated, with a demonstrable track record of meeting and exceeding sales targets. It is essential that you are QCF level 4 qualified, with a minimum of 3 years' advising experience.

We are also looking for high calibre, diploma qualified candidates with paraplanning or account management experience who are highly motivated and are looking to transform their career in an advising role with a world-class employer.

You will be rewarded with a generous basic salary of up to £50K, and a lucrative monthly bonus scheme with realistic on target earnings of £100K. In addition, you will have access to one of the most attractive benefits packages in the market, which includes up to 12% employer pension contributions, further bonuses based on company performance, and generous holiday entitlement.

For the right Adviser, guaranteed bonus in year one can also be agreed in order to maintain earnings during the transitional period.

This is undoubtedly one of the most exciting financial planning opportunities in the market right now, so if you are looking to enhance your career, we encourage you to apply immediately.
